Turning in the aisle, the mother replied, "That may be, Mr. Preacher, but you're a disturbin' him."

DOGS, SHEEP AND MEN

"Don't worry, take it easy, let the other fellow worry," said the doctor, both verbally and in print.

When dogs will enter sheep corrals at night, kill, bite and mangle the flock - "take it easy!!" Thirty eight lambs killed, bit and mangled Wednesday night.

Mr. C. C. Spencer convalescing from a hospital bed in Lethbridge called a town official and reported his loss, asking if something could be done.

Said Don Johnson "Why report to the Cop and Council, they will do nothing." Still stray dogs and killers run at large.

"Take it easy, let the other fellow worry" - the Doctor's advice.

While in Raymond we called at the Stone Service Store, had a very interesting visit with the proprietor, W.C. (Will) Stone, a growing business concern, Stone and Sons. The five sons all married and own modern homes so we are told. Only six months difference in our ages. We commenced comparing notes and selling prunes about the same time - over 50 years ago.

Will had been reading astronomy of late, contemplating the millions of planets (earths) etc. Over there would he be selling sugar and cough drops or wield the baton for a ladies chorus within the Pearly Gates. That is the $65 question.

A talented chorister he quoted lines from the hymn "There is no end to matter, there is no end to space", etc. Lines by Pope "See worlds on worlds compose one universe. Observe how system into system runs. What other planets circle other suns. What varied beings peoples every star. May tell why heaven has made us what we are". etc.

His wife's death "left the home with four bare walls", said Will. We know of several attractive widows there and we don't think they have been spoken for or picked over. There are nine widows in Magrath within a block of our home. Good home makers, affectionate, some with a legacy and some without. Would they move to Raymond we can't say, but money may lure some of them. A merchant with an abundance of goods and a rich voice. What more would a woman want? A man of much faith. His eyes are giving him some concern but his thoughts are inclined toward heaven while ours remain here below. We can only reason from what we see.

"Life," said O Henry, "is one of smiles, sobs and sniffles. Mostly sniffles".

AND WHY NOT?

A farmer retired and moved to the city. On the first morning in their new home, his wife said: "Pa, it's time you got up and start the fire."

"Not me!" he exclaimed, nestling down deeper in bed. "We might as well start right now getting used to all the city conveniences. Call the fire department!"
